HOLY THURSDAY SERVICES.

The Procession of Blessed Sacrament and Vespers at St. Peter's.

Holy Thursday services were conducted at St. Peter's church yesterday morning. At 10:30 a solemn high mass was celebrated, the following clergymen taking part: R. V. J. A. O'Reilly, celebrant; Rev. John Enright, deacon; Rev. P. F. Quinn, sub-deacon, and Rev. P. J. Golden, master of ceremonies. After the mass the procession of the blessed sacrament began. The host was carried from the tabernacle in the main altar to the Blessed Virgin's altar. The main altar was stripped, typifying the burial of Christ, and will remain so until Easter Sunday.

At 8:30 yesterday afternoon the tabernacle was carried to the residence of the episcopal residence, assisted by the students of St. Thomas' college. The same exercises will be repeated this and tomorrow afternoons at the same time.

CONTEST NOT YET DECIDED.

Question of How Votes Should Be Counted Must Now Be Determined by the Court.

The contest in the Third and Fourth wards of Carbondale for the office of school director still remains undecided. The votes were counted in the main court room yesterday before Judge Archibald and Judge Edwards, but no decision was reached.

Mr. Collins was represented in court by Attorneys Danovan and O'Brien, and Attorney L. H. Barnes appeared for Mr. Hughes. Deputy Clerk of the Court, Earl R. H. and Mr. O'Brien took the tally. Sixty-four votes were rejected as illegal, when left Hughes still five votes ahead. However, the learned judges could not agree as to the disposition of sixteen ballots that still figure in the case.

The sixteen votes referred to were marked in the manner usually supposed to indicate that the voter intended to vote the straight ticket, and also contained a mark opposite the name of Collins. Six of these were marked specially for Hughes and ten for Collins.

Judge Archibald believes these sixteen ballots should be counted in favor of the special marking, arguing that the special marking clearly indicates that the voter intended to cast his ballot for that particular candidate.

Judge Edwards does not entirely agree with that position. When Judge Gaudin is able to appear in court the question of how the ballots should be counted will be argued before the three judges and afterward ruled upon.

If the votes are counted according to the special marking, Collins will have a majority of one. If the party marking is taken to designate the proper legal ballot, Hughes will have three votes more than Collins.

The opinion of the court will be awaited with interest, as the question of marking and its effect has been a disputed one ever since the Baker act went into effect.
